THE CITY OF ROCHESTER

GENERAL

THE CITY OF ROCHESTER

P R E F A C E .

IN the work now submitted to the public, we flatter ourselves that we have, to some extent, redeemed our pledge to endeavor to offer our fellow-citizens a "Directory" which might be relied upon as accurate. After availing ourselves of every opportunity to obtain correct information, and submitting the manuscript to the public for their inspection, the book was finally sent to press without a single known error existing throughout the whole of it. In a work of this character and magnitude, it would be strange indeed if the keen eye of criticism would not be able to discover some errors and omissions. Towards all such as may have escaped our watchful care, we ask the kind indulgence of our patrons.

To all who have aided in any manner in promoting the object of the publishers, by furnishing statistics, or by the cheerfulness with which all applications for information have been met, we desire to express our thanks.

It is our purpose to continue the publication of a "Directory" from year to year. This, however, may depend somewhat upon the encouragement extended to the present edition. For some cause, the patronage in the way of advertisements is very limited. From this source we had hoped to realize the greatest portion of our compensation; and could we have foreseen the end from the beginning, we should not have considered it advisable to proceed in the work, without having put the subscription price higher. We had also confidently expected to receive some compensation from the Common Council for the additional time and expense of taking a city census. Failing in these particulars, our only dependence now for adequate compensation is in an increased sale of the work. We trust that the business community will find it of so much advantage to them, as to give it a cordial support.

Rochester, March, 1844.

RISE, PROGRESS, AND CONDITION OF ROCHESTER.

BUT little need be said or written with regard to the first founding and subsequent progress of the city of Rochester. The wonderful story is yet too fresh in the minds of this generation, to need the aid of the pen of journalist or historian. But to redeem the pledge that has been made to insert a chapter upon this subject, it is necessary to go back to its earliest settlement, and give an account of a few of the more important features in its history.

The pioneer into an unbroken wilderness, must of necessity expect to encounter privation and hardship; he must forego many of the comforts and necessaries of life, as well as the enjoyments of enlightened society and social intercourse. His home is the wilderness—and his only neighbors, beasts of prey, which prowl nightly around his dwelling, and devastate his young crops, almost the only hope of days to come. It need not be told how frequently such expectations are fully realized, or that such was the experience of the early settlers of Rochester. Where now stands a mighty city, peopled with tens of thousands of inhabitants, thirty-three years ago was nought but primeval forests—where now is heard the din and bustle of active life, and the merry clatter of a thousand wheels, was nought but solemn stillness, unbroken, save by the stealthy tread of wild beasts, the echoing whoop of the Indian, and the roaring of our majestic waterfall! Here, the hardy adventurer, with a shrewd eye to the natural advantages of the spot, "located," and the germ of the infant city was planted. In this secluded spot, he hoped to behold about him, in a few years, cultivated fields and other "betterments" as the fruit of his toil and labor, the reward of all he had endured. He perhaps saw with the eye of fancy, in the vista of years, a "settlement" or "village" about him, with its quota of mills, shops, schools, and taverns. This was as much as he dared even to hope. He little thought to behold a sight like that now exhibited. He did not expect upon the very spot where he "broke ground" for his first crop, and where he encountered in deadly strife the wild beast of the forest,* to pass through the crowded thoroughfare of a busy city! or to see the River, upon the banks of which he had made his home, and which throughout long ages had rolled over its natural bed in untamed freedom, unchannelled, as it were, and made obedient to the will of man!

In 1802, the "Hundred Acre Tract," comprising portions of the first, second, and third wards of the city, was purchased of Sir William Pulteney by Messrs. Rochester, Fitzhugh, and Carroll, and ten years thereafter was laid out in village lots, and named after one of the proprietors—"Rochester." The same year, (1812,) other allotments were made by other individuals adjoining this tract. At that time, only thirty-one years ago, there were but two frame dwellings, and but ten or fifteen permanent inhabitants, upon the spot where Rochester now stands!

Mr. Enos Stone, still a resident of the city, was about the first actual settler. He had been here several times to "look," but did not determine to settle till the spring of 1810. On the 17th of March in that year, he arrived here with his family. In April following, he had exhausted his scanty stock of provisions, and was obliged to go a distance of 40 miles (Livonia, Livingston County,) to get a supply. Such was the scarcity of every thing, except want, that on his way he offered one dollar per pound for butter, without being able to get any. On this expedition, by collecting a little here and a little there, he succeeded in obtaining seventeen bushels of wheat, with which he returned.

* See account of a bear fight, in O'Reilly's Sketches of Rochester.

Other individuals, whose enterprise led them to seek their fortunes in the wilderness, soon joined Mr. Stone; and step by step, slow at first, but sure, the career of Rochester progressed. The first public celebration here, deserves a passing notice. The few settlers having moved from a more thickly settled portion of the country, and having been accustomed to celebrate "Independence day," on the morning of the 4th of July, 1812, resolved themselves into a "committee of arrangements." The materials for the feast were contributed by different individuals; one furnishing a lamb, and a pig, and vegetables; another, bread; another, pies; and another, last, but not least in those anti-temperance times, a bottle of whiskey! The table was spread beneath an arbor of boughs, upon the brow of the hill near the corner of Main and St. Paul streets. Of the sumptuous repast provided, every man, woman, and child in the settlement, partook, together with some travellers who happened along—in all, about twenty persons!

In the winter of 1809-10, a little more than two years prior to this time, there was not a frame house within the present limits of the city, and but two or three buildings of any description. De Witt Clinton, in July of this year, while on an exploring expedition as a canal commissioner, travelled over the present site of the city, fording the River a few rods from where the county jail now stands, and went to Hanford's tavern (now called Hanford's Landing) to put up for the night! The same year of the first village allotments, (1812,) a bridge over the River was completed, where the Main and Buffalo street Bridge now stands. The cost of it was $12,000, which was assessed upon the counties of Genesee and Ontario, the River being at that time the dividing line between those two counties. In 1815, the first flouring mill was completed, by Messrs. Josiah Bissell and Hervey and Elisha Ely. This was called the "Red Mill," and stood directly in the rear of the present Commercial Buildings. It was afterward called the "Hydraulic Building," and was burnt, Oct. 4, 1837. The first religious society was organized in 1816, and at that time was the only one on a tract of 400 square miles. The "Rochester Gazette," a small weekly newspaper, was commenced the same year. The first Board of Trustees, under the charter of the village of "Rochesterville," was elected in June, 1817. Of this Board, two are yet citizens of Rochester—Everard Peck, Trustee, and Frederick F. Backus, Treasurer. In 1819, the name of "Rochesterville" was changed, by an act of the Legislature, to "Rochester." In the spring of 1834, Rochester was incorporated a city; the first election of officers under the city charter, was held in June of the same year. First Mayor, Jonathan Child, Esq., appointed by the Common Council.

From its first settlement down to the present time, the progress of Rochester has been unceasingly onward. During all the shocks which have shaken the financial world, Rochester has maintained unbroken her faith and her integrity. In the short period of thirty-three years, has sprung into existence a city, third in point of importance, population, and wealth in the Empire State, upon a spot of which it was once said, "It is a God-forsaken place, inhabited by muskrats, visited only by straggling trappers, through which neither man nor beast could gallop without fear of starvation or fever and ague."

Population of Rochester, in 1812, was 15 ; in 1816, 331 ; in 1820, 1,500 ; in 1825, 4,274 ; in 1830, 10,863 ; in 1836, 17,160 ; in 1840, 20,195. (For present population, see Census in another part of this volume.) The Post Office was first established in 1812. Abelard Reynolds, Esq., was appointed Postmaster. The first quarterly return was $3 42. For the quarter ending on the 31st Dec. last, the returns amounted to $4,427 40.

The ordinance for the first side-walk, was passed by the Board of Trustees, Jan. 18, 1822. This extended from the store now occupied by William Pitkin, Esq., on Buffalo-street, to the site of the late Mansion House on State-street. The passage of this ordinance caused much excitement among the citizens, they thinking that the condition of the place did not warrant an improvement of so much magnitude !

The first Fire Company was organized Oct. 9, 1817, which consisted of 26 members. Of this number, only 5 are still residents of the city : viz., Charles J. Hill, Everard Peck, Ebenezer Watts, Moses Chapin, and Wm. Brewster ; 13 are not living, and the remaining 8 have moved to other places.

As late as 1817, much inconvenience was experienced by those living upon the outskirts of the settlement, from the depredations of wild beasts. A Mr. Burke, who lived near the present Buffalo Bridge, made bitter complaint that the bears had carried off all his apples which he had hung up on the outside of his house to dry !

Information with regard to the present condition of Rochester, must necessarily be to a great extent statistical and tabular. To say that we are in the midst of one of the most fertile regions of the world, or that our water power is almost unlimited, would be like reiterating a " thrice-told tale." We only point to these as sources of prosperity ; and sources, too, beneath whose currents are yet hidden mines of untold wealth, inviting industry and enterprise (the only true elements of prosperity in any community) to seek out and enjoy them. These and other avenues are open. Notwithstanding the immense amount of the manufacturing interest, there is "still room" for more—if not in the same, at least in other branches. Not over one-fourth of the capacity of our water power is yet employed.

Our municipal affairs have generally been conducted with strict regard to utility and economy. Public improvement has kept even pace with individual enterprise, and all improvements have been projected and carried out upon the republican principle of yielding the greatest amount of good to the greatest number. With much pride and satisfaction do we point the stranger to our beautiful streets, which are improved to almost every man's dwelling; to the immense piles of buildings which meet the eye in almost every direction; to our churches and public school edifices, for the number, extent, and architectural beauty of which, Rochester will bear comparison with any town of equal magnitude in the Union, perhaps in the world!

The staple manufacture of Rochester, is flour. There are, at present, 21 flouring mills here, with an aggregate of 108 runs of stone, in which were made during the year 1843, 380,282 bbls. of flour, consuming an aggregate of 1,713,072 bushels of wheat. It should be stated in this connection, that in consequence of the fluctuations of the flour trade for a few seasons past, and the growing competition at the West, this branch of business has not been pushed to its full extent. Were the markets more permanent, and could our millers have constantly a full supply of wheat, they could easily swell the above amount to 600,000 bbls. In the year ending August, 1835, with only 78 runs of stone, there was manufactured here an aggregate of 460,000 bbls. Whilst flour is the principal article, much attention is given to other branches of manufactures, for an account of which, the reader is referred to the business synopsis in another part of this work.

Nor is Rochester destitute of places of resort and amusement. Romance can gratify itself along the majestic banks of our beautiful Genesee, and in visiting our several cataracts. The reflecting mind can meditate profitably among the tombs, the flower-enamelled paths, and woodland dells of our beautiful Mt. Hope. The inquiring mind can dwell upon the lore of ages, collected upon the shelves and tables of our public reading-rooms and libraries; and the curious can visit the 100,000 curiosities collected from the sea, earth, and sky of the four quarters of the Globe, in our Museum. In our public gardens, too, all can pass an hour or two in "luxurious idleness;" and every week or two, an opportunity is offered of witnessing the miraculous performances of some magician or harlequin, or of listening to some songster, whose warblings, if the newspapers say truly, have made half the world beside themselves with wonder and amazement; concerts, lectures, and soirees abound at all seasons of the year, so that all tastes and dispositions can, if they will, be gratified.

For a more particular account of the present condition of Rochester, of its institutions and other elements of prosperity, the reader is referred to the tables and statistics which follow. They have been compiled with much care, and in the main may be relied upon as accurate.

CURIOSITIES OF ROCHESTER, AND PLACES OF AMUSEMENT.

FALLS.

THE Genesee River falls upwards of 250 feet within the limits of the city of Rochester. The "Middle Fall" is in that part of the city called Frankfort. The "Lower Fall" is near Carthage. The first or Upper Fall is a few rods above the Aqueduct; this is only about twelve feet high, including the pitch over the dam near the county jail. The Middle Fall, in Frankfort, is ninety-six feet high. It was here that the renowned Sam Patch lost his life. He leaped from a scaffold twenty-five feet high, built upon the very brink of the Fall, into the abyss below; the whole distance through which he passed from the top of the scaffold to the water below, being about one hundred and twenty feet. The "Lower Fall" is one hundred and four feet high. The River is much narrower here than at the "Middle Fall," and the genius of improvement as yet permits it to course through its own natural channel. For these reasons, and for the wildness of the scenery about them, this Fall is more admired by the lovers of the romantic and beautiful, than any of the others.

AQUEDUCT.

Among the artificial curiosities of Rochester, is the Aqueduct of the Erie Canal over the Genesee River. This work is the most magnificent piece of masonry upon the canal, and perhaps may take rank among the most splendid structures in the Old and New Worlds. It was six years in building, having been commenced in the spring of 1836, and completed in the spring of 1842. It is supported upon seven arches, of fifty-two feet span each, resting upon six piers and two abutments over the River, and three smaller arches at the ends over the mill-races. The foundation of the whole structure is upon the solid rock in the bed of the stream.

The dimensions are as follows:—

Extreme length, including wing walls, about	800 feet,
Extreme width across the top, about	68 "
Width of trunk at top water mark,	45 "
Height from foundation in the bed of the River,	26 " 6 in.
Length of piers,	75 " 6 "
Length of arches,	68 " 8 "

The material used in its construction, is Onondaga limestone, quarried and dressed nearly one hundred miles distant. By the specifications of the canal commissioners, the stone was to have been dressed so as to form joints of one-eighth of an inch ; but so well has the work been done, that throughout most of it the joints are only one-sixteenth of an inch.

About 40,000 cubic yards of stone were excavated from the River in preparing for the foundation. Quantity of solid masonry in the foundation and superstructure, 26,772 cubic yards; quantity of iron in the railing, 107,697 pounds; cost of the whole work, $459,387 68, exclusive of land damages.

Built by James M. Kasson and Henry Cady of this city; planned and superintended principally by Matthew M. Hall, Esq., Resident Engineer, under the direction of the Chief Engineer, Nathan S. Roberts, Esq.

PLACES OF AMUSEMENT.

THE MUSEUM

Is in Exchange-street, a few doors from Buffalo-street. It is owned and superintended by Mr. J. R. Bishop, and contains upwards of 100,000 curiosities. This place of resort contains three spacious rooms, including a splendid exhibition-room which has recently been fitted up. It was first established in 1826, at which time there were but 3,000 curiosities collected; but additions have been made from time to time, until now it will bear comparison with any other in the State, except, perhaps, those in the city of New-York.

THEATRE—OLD CONCERT HALL.

Two years since, Concert Hall in Child's Buildings on Exchange-street, was enlarged and improved, and, some portions of the year, is used for Theatrical Exhibitions. Although less extensive than many buildings used exclusively for such purposes in other places, yet the accommodations correspond well with the encouragement given by our citizens to entertainments of this character. When not occupied as a Theatre, the room is used for exhibitions, concerts, lectures, &c.

READING ROOM—LIBRARIES.

The Rooms of the Young Men's Association, and of the Mechanics' Literary Association, are in State-street—the former, one door south of the City Bank, and the latter, nearly opposite. The Young Men's Association has a library of about 3100 volumes, mostly standard works; and upon the tables may be found newspapers from all parts of the Union, and Magazines and Reviews both of this country and of Europe. The Mechanics' Library contains about 1400 well selected volumes. The benefits of these Institutions are widely spread throughout the community, 400 families and individuals drawing books regularly from the libraries. In addition to these, are libraries in each of our seminaries, in the sixteen public schools, and parish libraries connected with most of our churches.

ROCHESTER CITY GARDEN

Is on the south side of Main-street, nearly opposite North-street. This is a place of much resort during the summer months. It is elegantly laid out with gravel walks, and filled up with saloons and arbors, in which are kept refreshments and all the delicacies of the season. At stated periods, exhibitions of fire-works offer an additional attraction. Many of these will suffer nothing in comparison with those of the far-famed Niblo. Additions and improvements are now making for the coming season, Peter Palmer, proprietor.

MOUNT HOPE BOTANIC GARDEN AND NURSERY

Is on South St. Paul-street, a few rods north of the main entrance to Mount Hope Cemetery. The proprietors have laid out an extensive flower garden, fronting upon the street, through which, by a sort of labyrinthine walk, visitors make their way to the magnificent green-house in the rear. In the green-house and grounds are cultivated all varieties of plants, natives not only of America, but of Europe, Asia, and Africa, together with all the varieties of fruit-trees that flourish in our climate. The torrid, temperate, and frigid zones, the blooming orange groves of the South, and the frozen regions of the North, all pay tribute here. The votaries of Flora seldom let an opportunity pass of calling upon the proprietors, Messrs. Ellwanger & Barry, and enjoying their polite attentions. The nursery and garden contain fourteen acres of ground. At the entrance is a saloon, where refreshments can be procured at all seasons.

MOUNT HOPE CEMETERY.

“ Away with human pageantries—the temple’s solemn gloom!
 Nor need of mausoleum, if ye give the dead but room,
 And hallow, from earth’s hopes and fears, the spot wherein they sleep,
 And let Nature, on her living page their sacred memory keep—
 Oh! not the proudest pyramid o’er Egypt’s sands, that frowned,
 Had the grandeur that will rest upon this consecrated ground!
 Like the tone of angel-voices, hark! the whisp’ring breezes tell—‘ Here’s a home where all, who gather, may in peace securely dwell;
 And here’s a tomb will moulder not, till Nature’s self decay—
 An empire that will never cease, till the heav’ns shall pass away!’ ”
 MOUNT AUBURN.

Mount Hope is the pride of Rochester. It is a spot consecrated as the receptacle of our fondest memories. Within its hallowed precincts rest the ashes of those who were, to many of our citizens, dearer than any now in existence; and there, too, many now in life, expect themselves to sleep, when they shall “ shuffle off this mortal coil" and "fall like leaves before the autumnal blast!"

Mount Hope contains 72½ acres of uneven ground, lying between the Genesee River and South St. Paul-street, in the extreme south part of the city. Only part of it has, as yet, been laid out into burial lots; but carriage ways and fine gravel walks extend to all parts of the ground. From several different points are fine views of the city and adjacent country, forming a landscape of surpassing beauty; and on a clear day, from the highest point (the pinnacle) is an unobstructed view of Lake Ontario.

The first purchase of fifty-four acres, was made in August, 1838; and in October following, the grounds were dedicated by the Rev. Mr. Church, of the First Baptist Society. Additions have been made since that time. Near the entrance is a receiving tomb, to be used at inclement seasons of the year, when the roads are obstructed by snow. There are over 700 lots already laid out, at prices varying from $5 to $25. The Fire and Military Departments have each a lot, appropriated to the interment of such as they may designate. A portion (Potters' Field) is appropriated for the burial of strangers and the poor.

Although this was originally designed as a city cemetery exclusively, yet many persons residing at a distance in the country, have taken lots. Whole number of interments up to the first of January last, including those from adjoining towns and removals from other burying-grounds, is 1,735. Whole cost of the grounds, upwards of $8,000. Strangers and others visiting Western New-York, should not fail of paying Mount Hope a visit.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS—BOARD OF EDUCATION.

In May, 1841, the legislature passed an act, establishing a free school system in Rochester. Under the operation of this plan, every child in the city may receive an education, free of all expense, directly—the system being supported by general tax. It is under the government of a Board of Education, consisting of ten Commissioners—two from each Ward—elected annually by the people, and a Superintendent appointed by the Board. The whole number of scholars actually attending these Public Schools, is 4,246; employing the services of forty-five teachers. The city is divided into fifteen districts, in eleven of which, are newly erected school-houses, which will bear comparison with most of the academies in the State. There is also a school for colored children, which embraces the whole city. The aggregate cost of the houses already completed, is upwards of $35,700. Each of the districts is supplied with a library, and a portion of them with a good Common School apparatus. The branches taught are the same as those taught in our best English Schools; and all who will, can here receive a thorough, practical education, “without money or without price.” The aggregate number of volumes in the district libraries, is 5000. The Board for the present year, consists of the following gentlemen:

ORPHAN ASYLUMS.

THE ROCHESTER ORPHAN ASYLUM

Is situated between Greig and Exchange streets, in the South part of the city, on a beautiful tract of ground, which was the munificent donation of Mr. Greig of Canandaigua. The building has been recently completed, and is a substantial and commodious edifice, fifty feet square, and two stories high, with an attic and basement. It is alike an ornament to the city, and a memorial of the liberality of its inhabitants. The Institution was established in 1836, and incorporated in 1838. Fifty-six children now occupy the Orphan's Home. They are under the maternal care of Mrs. TOBEY, who has most creditably filled this station for six years. The school is taught by Miss Mary Hosmer, and the Sabbath-school, by Mr. E. Peck.

The charter requires that the estate and financial concerns of the Institution, shall be managed by seven Trustees, to be elected at the annual meeting of the Association. The general supervision of the children, and interests of the asylum, are committed to the Ladies, who constitute a Board of Managers. The present year, the Board is composed of the following Ladies :

MARCH, 1844.

 ROMAN CATHOLIC ORPHAN ASYLUM.

This beautiful edifice is situated on the corner of Frank-street and Vought-alley. It was opened for the reception of orphan children, on the 5th of July, 1843. The ground on which it stands was purchased by the congregation of St. Patrick's Church, and the building was erected principally by them, aided by the liberality of several benevolent citizens. It is provided with beds for twenty-four orphans, of whom the Institution now contains twenty. It is managed at present by Miss KELLY, but will soon be placed under the care of the Sisters of Charity—so eminently qualified for the supervision of such institutions.

This home of the parentless is supported by the contributions of the benevolent, together with the avails of an Orphan's Fair, to be held annually on the 17th of March.

POST OFFICE

Is situated in the Arcade Hall, No. 28 Buffalo-street. It was first established in 1812. The receipts for postage during the first quarter, were only $3 42!—For the last two years, the quarterly receipts have averaged over $5,000 each quarter. During the last year, the income at this office has decreased to a very great extent, as will be seen by a statement below.—The cause of this can, in part, undoubtedly be traced to the facilities given to business communities for the more speedy transmission of mail matter by private expresses. The receipts for the years 1842 and 1843, were as follows:

JOHN ALLEN'S CLINTON LINE.

The subscriber, grateful for the patronage which has been so liberally extended to him during the past year, begs leave to say to his friends and the public, that having added a number of New Boats to his already superior Line, he will be ready, on the opening of Navigation, to forward the Passengers and Freight with which he may be favored, with that comfort and despatch for which his Line has been hitherto distinguished. His Agents are men of the most active business habits. His Captains are experienced and attentive. His Boats are numerous, new, and of the First Class; and running in connection with the Eckford Line Tow Boats on the Hudson River, and C. M. Reed's Steam-boats, and other vessels on Lake Erie and the Upper Lakes, he flatters himself that the business entrusted to his care will be performed in a manner satisfactory to his patrons.

extending from Main-Street through to Water-Street, forming the most extensive and completely arranged RESTAURATEUR in the Union.

Immediately connected with the Commercial, are very large and spacious Rooms fitted up in a neat and elegant style, suitably adapted to the comfort and convenience of either LARGE OR SMALL PARTIES, wherein gentlemen may avoid the noise and confusion consequent to the vicinity of a bar-room. PIANO FORTE AND

CITY MUSIC STORE,

No. 36 State-street, two doors north of city Bank, Rochester, wholesale and retail dealer in Musical Merchandise of every description:—Also, agent for Gilbert & Co's. celebrated Piano Fortes—and also for L. Gilbert's celebrated Piano Fortes—likewise for A. Prescott's Seraphines, Melodions, double Bass, Violoncellos, &c., &c.

L. T. CHADWICK, Manufacturer & Dealer in Seraphines,

NO. 67, EXCHANGE-ST., (UP STAIRS.)

Directly opposite the "Rochester House," Rochester.

THIS instrument is admirably adapted to both Church and Parlor Music. It combines the essential qualities both of the Organ and Piano Forte, with the advantages of cheapness and durability. The principle consists in substituting reeds for the pipes of the Organ and the strings of the Piano Forte, and is much less liable than either of the latter instruments to get out of tune.

Country Churches whose means are inadequate to the purchase of an Organ, will find the Seraphine a complete substitute.

The construction is so simple, that they can be packed and sent to any part of the country with perfect safety. PRICE, from $100 to $200.

N. B.—All orders promptly attended to. The subscriber has also on hand several Piano Fortes, and will be constantly receiving additions to his stock, from the best makers in New-York and Albany. Those wishing to buy, will find it an object to call and examine his instruments before purchasing elsewhere.

LIFE, FIRE, AND MARINE INSURANCE OFFICE, ROCHESTER.

H. A. BREWSTER

ACTING as Agent for several old and responsible Fire and Marine Insurance Offices, devotes his time exclusively to this and other Commission Business, Collection of Rents, Payment of Taxes, Sales of Real Estate, Purchases of Flour, Wool, and other Produce; and also makes advances on consignments of Flour, Wool, &c.

REFER TO.. Charles M. Lee, Esq., Hon. Addison Gardner, Rochester; Nathan Appleton, Esq., Reed, Hurd & Co., and W. & S. Phipps & Co., Boston; Lemuel Pomeroy, Esq., Pittsfield; E. Corning & Co., and Henry L. Webb, Esq., Albany; R. & N. Dart, and Peter H. Schenck, Esq., N. York; Hon. Henry Brewster, Le Roy; Joseph Dart, Esq., Buffalo.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK, No 44, Wall-street.—This Institution, since its organization on the 1st of February, 1843, one year, has issued upwards of four hundred and seventy policies; the aggregate amount of premiums on which, give a capital of more than double what its charter required to commence with, and greatly exceeding the requisite amount to meet any probable annual losses on this number of insurances, as is tested by the most approved tables giving the rates of mortality, and by the experience of the oldest and most distinguished Life Offices in this country and in Great Britain. Its capital is now rapidly augmenting by the second year's premiums becoming due and from the daily accession of new members.

The unexampled success of this company affords strong evidence that the mutual principle of Life Insurance is growing in public favor and confidence, and that the important benefits resulting from it need only to be known to vastly increase its business and extend its usefulness.

To illustrate the advantages of the Mutual plan of Life Insurance, we cite a case from the "Equitable Society of London," viz: an insurance in the sum of $5,000 for 34 years' continuance, commencing at the age of 25, and terminating at 59; the accumulated profits thereon gave to it $11,250—making, with the sum insured, a total amount of $16,250, payable to the survivors, more than three times the insurance.

This company will grant insurance on lives upon the mutual principle, at their office, No. 44 Wall-st. Persons may effect insurance on their own lives, or the lives of others, and either for the whole duration of life, or for a limited period.

The terms of insurance are as favorable as those of any similar institution in the United States.

The net profits of the business of this company will be divided among the insured in proportion to the amount of premiums paid by them. The liabilities of the members extend no further than the amount of the respective premiums paid.

SAMUEL HANNAY, Secretary.

MORRIS ROBINSON, President.

FIRE INSURANCE!*Mutual Safety Insurance Company

OF THE CITY OF NEW-YORK :

SECURED PROFITS, $507,500.

This Company having established a permanent agency in this city, are prepared to issue policies on property in this city and elsewhere, at the lowest rate of premiums.

While the premiums charged, conditions of insurance, and general mode of transacting business, are precisely similar to those of the most approved stock companies, the nett profits of this company, instead of being paid to stockholders, are to be divided among those who pay the premiums, in proportion to so much of the amount paid by each, as shall be earned, on the 18th of December of each year; and script certificates are issued for the same, bearing such interest as arises from the investment of the nett profits in bonds and mortgages and public stocks.

It is presumed that the premiums of each year will not only pay all losses and expenses of that year, but will enable the company to divide a surplus among the insured, thereby also increasing the security of the insured, which now consists of the accumulated profits of five years, five hundred seven thousand, five hundred dollars.

The charter expressly provides, that the insured cannot, in any case, incur a loss beyond the amount of his premiums.

ABBREVIATIONS.

In the following pages, cor. stands for corner—op. for opposite—sq. for square—h. for house—b. for boards. The word “street,” when the name of any street is mentioned, should in all cases be understood. When alleys are referred to, the word “alley” is used. Other abbreviations are such as are in common use, and will be intelligible without particular explanation.
