The Library Board consists of seven members, five appointed by the Mayor for a term of five years, together with the Mayor and the President of the Board of Education as members ex-officio.

The library has as yet no central collection of books. The temporary administration offices and library workrooms are in Building No. 9 at Exposition Park, second floor. On the first floor is Exposition Park Branch Library, the first of a system of branch libraries which the Board is planning to establish, some in school buildings, some in rented quarters, etc. Numerous small collections of books will be deposited in various parts of the city and circulated among the people of the neighborhood.

The branch libraries will contain chiefly popular books for home use. There will be in each branch a collection of dictionaries, cyclopedias, and other frequently used reference books and current periodicals. Co-operative relations will be established with the other libraries in the city for economy and efficiency in supplying the book needs of the people.

Each branch will have a department for children, which will be supplied with books specially chosen for their merit and suitability. In these departments the usual activities of children's work such as story hours, reading clubs, etc., will be inaugurated.

The grade libraries of the public schools, consisting of about 12,000 volumes, have been put in charge of the Public Library to be managed for the benefit of the schools. These grade libraries consist of 35 to 50 volumes each of general children's literature, and are circulated among the children in the schools for home use.

The City appropriation for library purposes in 1911 was $10,000; in 1912 it was $15,000, and in addition a special appropriation of $15,000 for altering Building No. 9 and equipping it for use as headquarters and as the first branch library.
