REGULATIONS of the CENTRAL LIBRARY.

BY-LAWS, ARTICLE XVIII.

SECTION 1. The Library shall be open every day throughout the year from 9 A. M. to 6 P. M., without intermission (except upon Sundays and legal holidays).

§ 2. All inhabitants of Rochester, over the age of ten years who shall have obtained a permit from one of the School Commissioners or Superintendent, shall be entitled to borrow books from the Library, for home use upon signing a promise to obey its rules and regulations.

§ 3. An alphabetical list of all persons entering their names for the purpose of using the Library shall be kept by the Librarian, with the residence of each individual inserted opposite his name.

§ 4. No pupil of the public schools shall be allowed to draw from the library more than one book a week.

§ 5. No person can procure a book by the use of another persons's card, except persons who may be suffering from continued illness, and those who are permanently disabled from applying in person.

§ 6. No person shall have for home use, more than one volume at one time; and no book shall be retained by any person borrowing it more than fourteen days, provided, always, that any book may be borrowed twice by the same person, but not more, until it shall have been returned to the library, and shall have remained there one full library day.

§ 7. All books that the Library Committe, in its discretion, may set apart as books of reference, shall constitute the reference library and none of such books shall be taken from room.

§ 8. To protect the Library against loss and to secure to all a just and equitable share in the benefits, any person retaining a volume longer than the regulations permit will be fined two cents for each day of detention; the librarian being charged with collection of these and all other dues to the library, keeping a careful and accurate account of the same in detail, and no remission of any fine shall be made, except by order of the Library Committee. The Librarian shall at least once each month, pay to the Superintendent the amount of all fees collected during the preceeding month.

§ 9. Any book detained one week beyond the time limited by these regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian, and an additional penalty of twenty cents shall be collected from any such delinquent. And no book shall be lent to any person who has fines and penalties remaining unsettled after three weeks from the date of any loan.

§ 10. No person who has borrowed a book from the library shall lend it to any one not a member of the same household.

§ 11. All injuries to the books beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Library Committee; any book remaining out of the Library for two months shall be considered lost, and proceedings taken for its recovery.

§ 12. Books must be returned to the library at such times as may be required by the Board, under a penalty of one dollar for each volume detained, after reasonable notice of the time fixed for returning the same shall have been given to the holders personally, by mail or through the city newspapers,

§ 13. No book shall be taken from the shelves in any part of the Library by any person not connected with or employed there.

§ 14. Pupils in attendance at the Public Schools will not be permitted within the Library rooms during school hours, except by the written permission of the Teacher.

§ 15. All conversation and conduct inconsistant with the quiet and orderly use of the library shall be strictly prohibited.

§ 16. Any person abusing the privileges of the Library by unbecoming conduct or by violation of any of the regulations, by intentional defacement of a book by writing in it, or any other way, shall be reported to the Board as soon as may be, and by them excluded from the library for a time, or permanently, according to the nature and degree of delinquency or fault; but in case of any gross offence, the Librarian shall act summarily in the matter, and cause the offender to be at once excluded from the library, reporting the case to the Board as soon as possible for their final decision. The use of ink will not be permitted in making extracts from books in the reference library. Smoking is strictly prohibited in the Library.

§ 17. No magazines, monthly, or bound volumes of magazines shall be taken from the Library.
