MCLS Plan of Service vs. Strategic Plan
Ms. Uttaro explained that the MCLS member library directors will meet in January to discuss the revision of the Document of Understanding between members and the system and to discuss a revision to the system Plan of Service and Strategic Plan. Prior to 2012, the system operated under a Plan of Service as required by the New York State Education Department, with a separate Strategic Plan developed by the MCLS Board of Trustees. The two plans were blended into a single Plan of Service that guided system work from 2012-2016, and in the current plan, which covers 2016-2021. Ms. Uttaro asked trustees to give their opinions on continuing with a blended Plan of Service and Strategic Plan or separating the two components into individual documents. In response to a question, she clarified that prior to blending the documents back in 2012, the Strategic Plan served to govern the activities of the MCLS Board of Trustees. Dr. Knapp, Ms. D’Aurizio, and Ms. Shelly weighed in and expressed interest in keeping the documents combined but increasing the specificity of direction for the MCLS Board and increasing the feedback and accountability reporting in regards to adherence to the plan.

Rochester Public Library Board of Trustees (RPL)
Mr. Wolf was absent, and no report was given on the October RPL meeting.
Rochester Regional Library Council (RRLC)
Dr. Knapp reported that the RRLC Board is continuing the search for new office space. Also, at their last meeting it was announced that Sally Collins is retiring from RRLC at the end of 2019 after 27 years of service.

Mr. Davis offered to answer any questions on his written report (Documents Book). He advised Trustees that December 3, is the annual ROC the Day, a 24-hour online event that gives people in our community an opportunity to support not-for-profit organizations in the nine-county Greater Rochester area. This year, the money raised by FFRPL during ROC the Day will go towards a field trip to Washington D.C. for 20 kids from the Safe to Be Smart program.
