

MCLS Policy
Public Participation in Library Board Meetings

The Board of Trustees of the Monroe County Library System encourages and welcomes comments from members of the public at the beginning of regular meetings. All Board meetings are advertised through local news channels and online.

People wishing to address the Board must register with the Secretary to the Library Director and will be recognized to speak in the order in which they registered. Registration must be completed prior to the meeting being called to order. Visitors to the Board meetings will be recognized by the Board President and asked to state their name and address.

At the start of a meeting, a maximum of 30 minutes is allowed for public comments. Individual participation is limited to three (3) minutes.

Citizens may comment on any library-related subject. Discussion of matters irrelevant to library business is not permitted. The Board reserves the right to limit the public comment period when inappropriate topics are discussed.

The Board reserves the right to comment after a statement has been completed or to immediately move on to the next speaker.
